Forecast For East of England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 0400 on Thursday 01 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy and patchy drizzle in the east, brighter further west.

Today:
Dull with low cloud for eastern areas, and a chance of occasional light rain or drizzle, especially for Norfolk. Dry and brighter with some bright or sunny spells further west. Feeling cool along the Norfolk coast. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy, misty but largely dry across eastern locations. Further west dry with some clear spells, but also areas of mist and low cloud forming. Minimum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Friday:
Generally cloudy through the morning with mist and low cloud lifting. Then as sunny spells break through so scattered showers will develop, these sometimes heavy and slow moving. Warm. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Bright or sunny spells and showers throughout, these often heavy, occasionally thundery, and perhaps merging into longer spells of rain at times. Mist and low cloud may affect coasts. Warm.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.